

Wednesday Morning Bible Study

11:00 AM At The Village

This unit – The Law of the Lord – takes us back to the Old Testament. Moses was chosen by God to lead the Israelites out of Egypt after their long enslavement. He was the mediator between God and the people, speaking to God on their behalf and delivering God's Law to them. This law was important to the Jewish people in their worship, to the New Testament disciples and the early Christians, and it is foundational for Christian faith today.
